General Education - Citizenship and Society

Gathering data for courses that meet the program goal for Citizenship and Society Curriculum in the General Education Program of Shippensburg University. Program goal: Guide and prompt students to understand responsible citizenship, how society protects or fails to protect basic rights, and the avenues for individual or collective action.

All Course Learning Objectives are based off the spring 2018 wording.

* Required

1. Email address *

2. Course Assessment Data is For (XXX-###)
   Example: ESS-108 *

3. Estimate of Number of Students in all Sections.

Civil Rights and Civil Liberties

The student understands the ways societies protect or fail to protect the basic rights of individuals and groups.

4. What assessment tools were used to collect the Civil Rights and Civil Liberties results? *

5. Percent of Students that were Unsatisfactory *

6. Percent of Students that were Emerging *

7. Percent of Students that were Developing *

8. Percent of Students that were Proficient *

9. Percent of Students that were at Mastery *
Individual and Collective Action
The student understands how societies and communities address collective issues.

11. What assessment tools were used to collect the Individual and Collective Action results? *

12. Percent of Students that were Unsatisfactory *

13. Percent of Students that were Emerging *

14. Percent of Students that were Developing *

15. Percent of Students that were Proficient *

16. Percent of Students that were at Mastery *

17. Use of Results for this Learning Objective. *

Responsibilities of Citizenship
The student understands that individuals and societies have responsibilities to each other and to the common good.
18. What assessment tools were used to collect the Responsibilities of Citizenship results? *

19. Percent of Students that were Unsatisfactory *

20. Percent of Students that were Emerging *

21. Percent of Students that were Developing *

22. Percent of Students that were Proficient *

23. Percent of Students that were at Mastery *

24. Use of Results for this Learning Objective. *

☐ Send me a copy of my responses.